

TERKINI

» RM68.28 juta untuk projek mencegah banjir dan hakisan

The housing sector is still promising – Dr Joachim

Posted By: Warta Oriental on: June 01, 2023 In: English

Dr Joachim (second left) with Dr Jamili (left) and Gilbert Ee (third right) in a group photo at the Roof Topping Ceremony at 12th floor of Coral Bay@ Sutera.

KOTA KINABALU: The housing sector is still promising despite some issues and challenges, said Deputy Chief Minister Datuk Seri Dr Joachim Gunsalam.

Ad closed by Google

He is confident that the housing sector will prevail despite some issues and challenges and will

TERKINI

RM68.28 juta untuk projek mencegah banjir dan hakisan
January 25, 2024

DBKK buka 15 lokasi bazar Ramadan sekitar bandar raya
January 25, 2024

Perkenal 'cuti terapung' untuk membolehkan sambutan perayaan minoriti
January 25, 2024

Introduce floating holidays to enable celebration of minorities' festival
January 25, 2024

"This is also an opportune time, seeing that East Malaysia itself is a growth market for the housing sector," said Dr Joachim, who is also Local Government and Housing Minister, when officiating the roof topping ceremony of the Coral Bay @ Sutera organised by GSH Corporation Limited and China Railway Construction Group (CRCG) (M) Sdn Bhd here today.

Dr Joachim (centre) listening a briefing by Gilbert Ee at the sales gallery room while Dr Jamili (right) look on.

January 25, 2024

Lelaki meninggal dunia selepas bantu selamatkan mangsa kebakaran di Labuan
January 25, 2024

OPR kekal 3.00 peratus
January 25, 2024

Bella dipercayai dibunuh kerana cemburu, sakit hati
January 25, 2024

Lelaki lepaskan tembakan ke arah polis dijejak
January 25, 2024

Jun Hao cemerlang cipta kejutan lepasi halangan pusingan pertama Masters Indonesia
January 25, 2024

FOLLOW US

For any enquiries please email

<https://wartaoriental.com/2023/06/01/the-housing-sector-is-still-promising-dr-joachim/>